FOREWORD

In climax to their four years at Central, the members of the Senior class of 1935 present as their farewell activity this fifteenth annual. It is their hope that this memorial of their past achievements will furnish the students with pleasant memories of their days spent at Central. In leaving this volume behind, the Seniors wish to express their gratitude to the faculty and to all others who have helped them during their four years' journey.

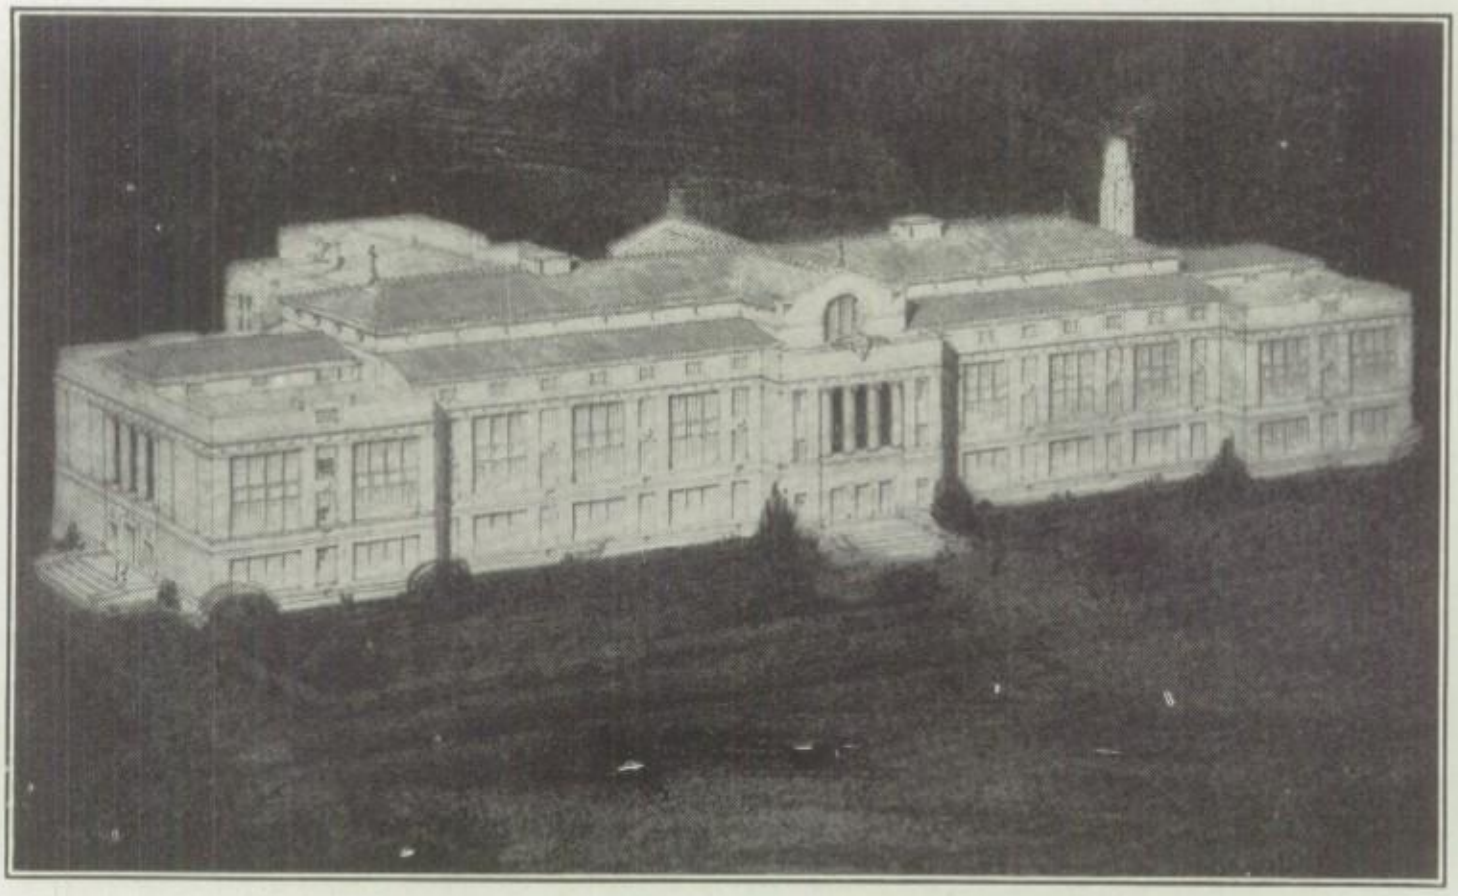
DEDICATION

Staunch loyalty to Central Catholic High School during three years of generous service has endeared our assistant principal to the Seniors of 1935. In recognition of his keen sense of fairness and in appreciation of his patience and good advice, we dedicate this fifteenth volume of the Centripetal to our good friend, the Reverend James J. O'Toole, S.T.D., J.C.D.

REVEREND JAMES O'TOOLE, S.T.D., J.C.D.
Assistant Principal



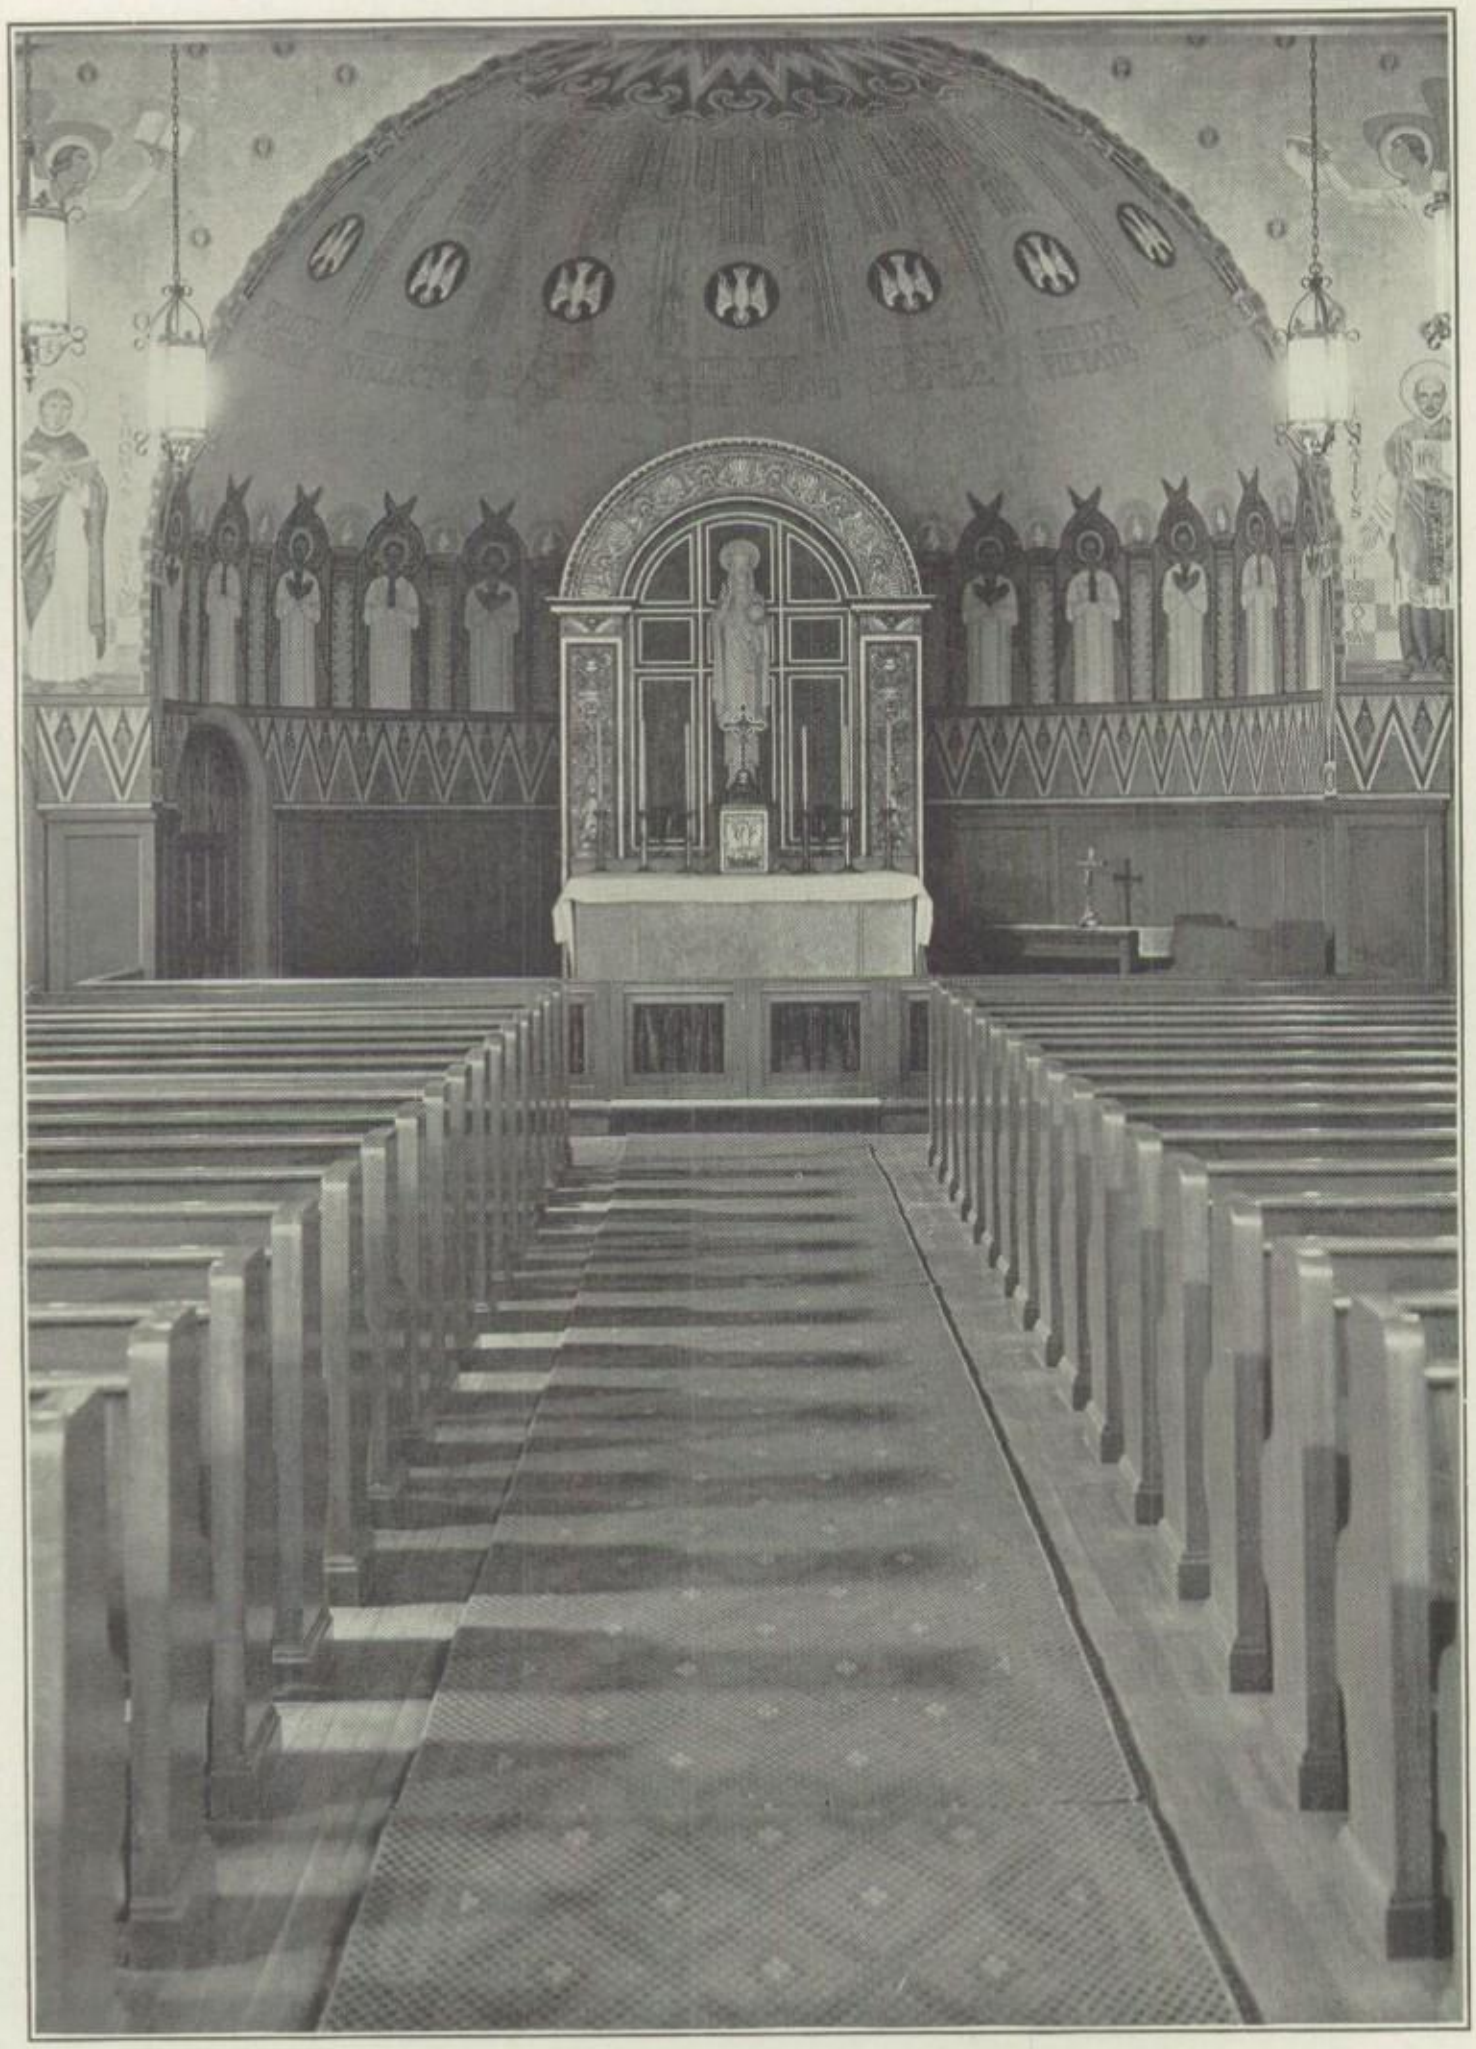
Central Catholic High School

Central Catholic High School offers its students all the advantages of modern education, not only through a modernized school curriculum but also through an excellent religious program so necessary in training to good citizenship.

The school was constructed only seven years ago in 1928, and is one of the most up to date school buildings in Toledo.

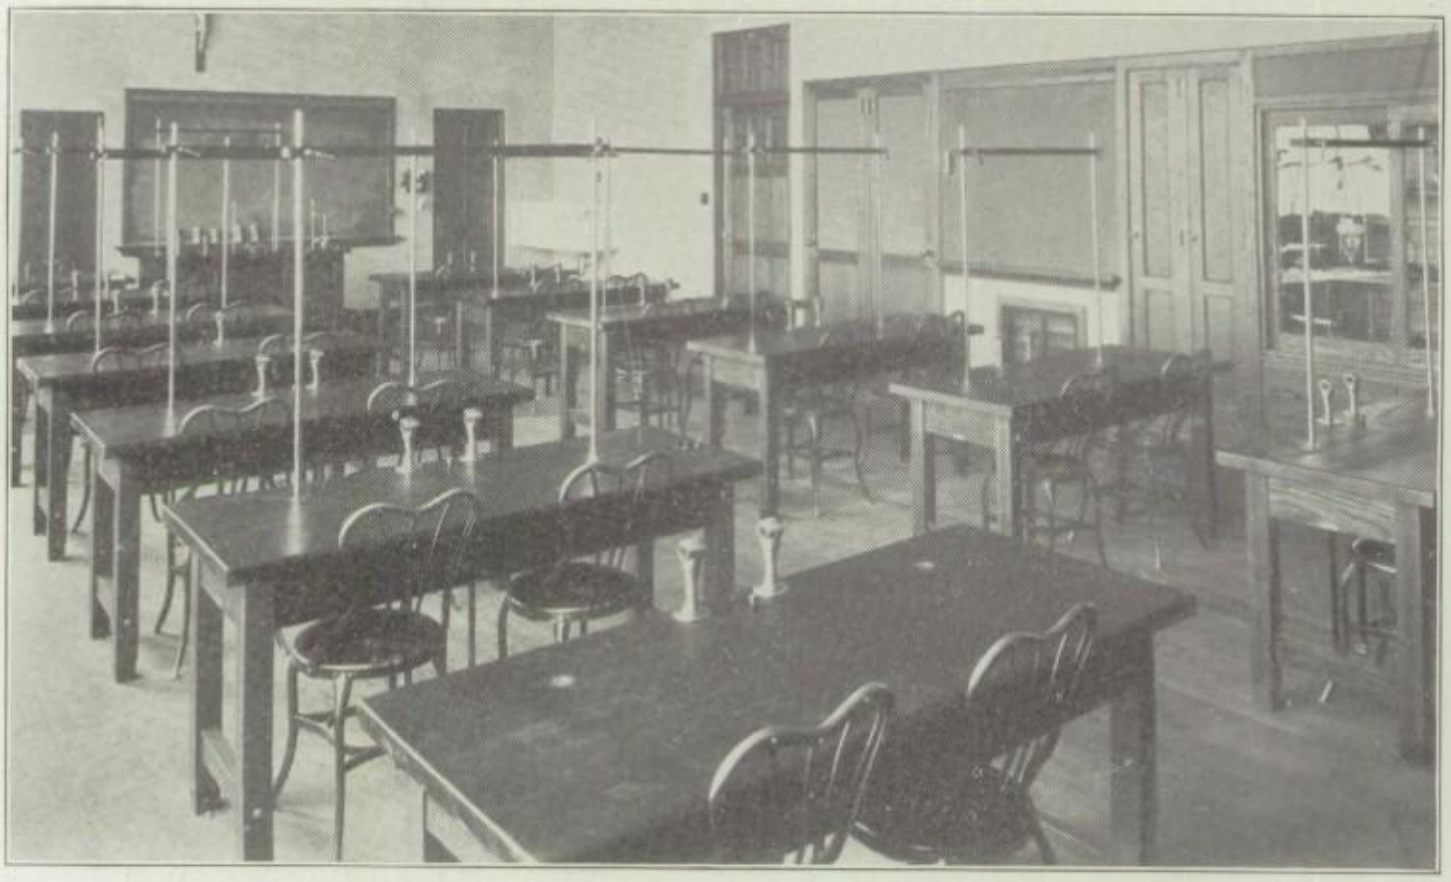
It has a faculty of forty instructors and offers a program of studies including the following curricula: Academic, Scientific, Commercial, Teaching, Art, Drafting and Home Economics.

The school owes its beginning and continued existence to the generosity of the thirty Catholic parishes of the city.



Where God holds Court all through the day,
And students come their homage to pay.

Empty now, but not for long.



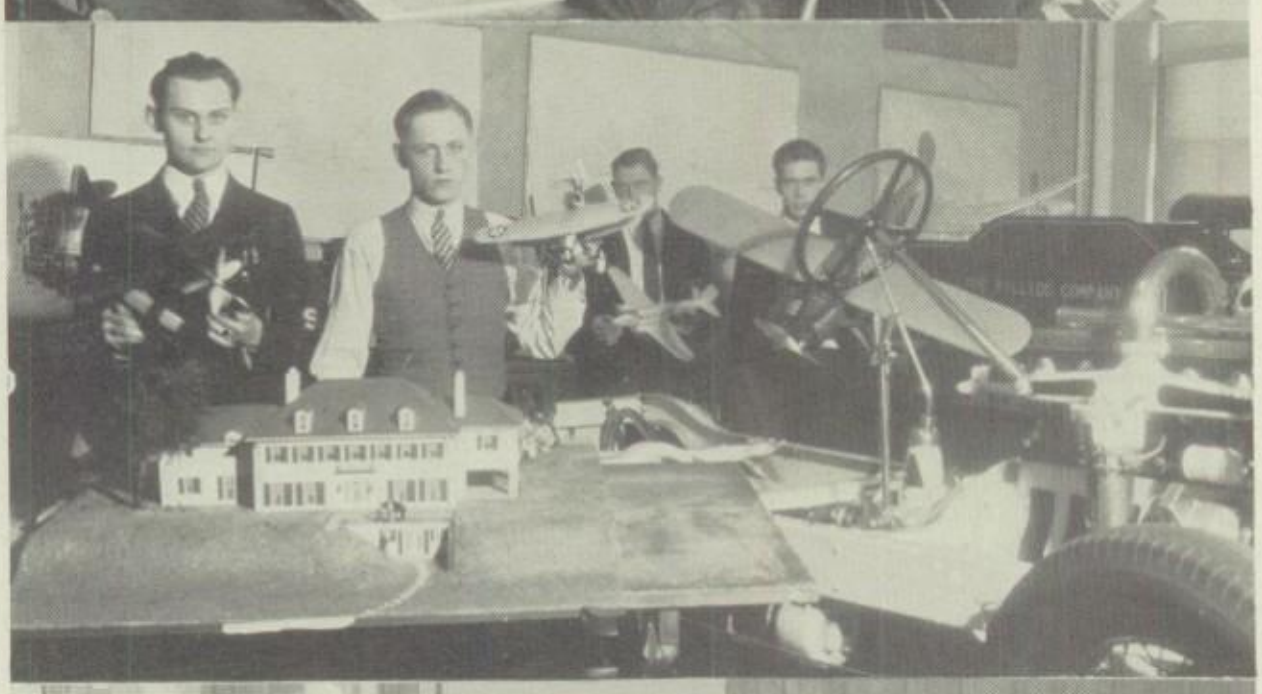
Mr. Fischer's pride and joy.

Here nimble fingers cut and sew.

Learning the ways and means of pastels.

"—Otherwise it is very fine."

Whose design will be the best?.



Houses, airplanes, or what have you?

Tapping away on the typewriter.

Echoes of the Present Youth; his footsteps on the floor.
Walls haunted by the voices of those who've gone before.

CLASSES

The Seniors

"Glad to be leaving" . . . on our lips . . . but deep in our hearts . . . "Why can't Seniors be Seniors forever?" . . . We can . . . for Senior means the elder one . . . the one who sets the example . . . and graduating from Central . . . we are a little better qualified . . . or should be . . . to set examples worth following . . . The pages . . . in our memory book . . . because no funds are necessary . . . will contain many cuts . . . of the colorful pictures . . . of colorful events . . . in our Senior year . . . We can remember . . . with pardonable pride . . . the "second-best" . . . but to us the best . . . football team . . . basketball team . . . and "teams" in general . . . The class officers . . . Johnny "On-the-Spot" Eberly . . . charming Jeannette Aubry . . . that vixen Madelyn Brighton . . . with the air of stalwart Bill O'Loughlin . . . "Gentleman and Captain" . . . have helped to make the class of '35 one to tell the grand children about . . . The lovely rings . . . and the senior play . . . We still remember the songs from "The Firefly" . . . They were the days . . . Although we leave a . . . pleasant memory (we hope) . . . we take a hundred with us.

Juniors

The Juniors are still astonished at the rapidity . . . with which the year has sped by . . . Dubious Juniors today . . . experienced Seniors tomorrow . . . ready to carry on in the activities . . . as those before them . . . forming just another link . . . in the chain . . . of the classes that have left Central . . . to forge ahead. Ever since the Juniors entered High School . . . way back in '33 . . . they have been outstanding . . . in everything they undertook . . . The Junior Centric . . . the Patriotic assembly . . . Color Day . . . give ample proof . . . that the Juniors, led by their class officers, William Reed . . . Virginia O'Rourke . . . Jack Yates . . . and Verna Geoffrion . . . have a preparation . . . for becoming . . . one of the peppiest . . . and most active Senior classes . . . Central has ever witnessed . . . and she has seen many . . . So, Juniors, we are leaving our places . . . for you to fill . . . We know you'll fill them as well as we have done.

The Sophomores

A little wiser, perhaps . . . a little sadder . . . because the year has drawn to a close . . . a year brimful of fun . . . mixed with work, of course . . . The period of wise-foolishness has become a thing of the past . . . and the sophisticated Sophomores have become . . . ambitious Juniors of next year . . . Half of the road . . . aided by the spirit of perseverance . . . the never-lagging footsteps of class leaders . . . Jack Roberts . . . Virginia Yarder . . . Arthur Ingraham . . . Lucille Burns . . . setting the way . . . for the rest to follow . . . The helping hands of the faculty . . . the kindly advice of the upperclassmen . . . Voices of experience . . . have prepared the Sophomores . . . to extend . . . rather patronizingly, at first . . . a friendly hand to the youngsters of next year . . . who in turn will probably be as obliging . . . willing . . . eager . . . as their predecessors . . . the Sophomore Class of this year . . . can reap the harvest . . . of the contentment . . . which sprang from the seed of labor.

The Freshmen

Freshmen are born . . . but it is up to them . . . to make themselves . . . Sophomores. When first they entered . . . they felt strange perhaps . . . but after a few months . . . Central became . . . "Our School" . . . the best in town . . . "Our Class" . . . the best in school . . . If the Freshmen of the class of '38 . . . are as successful as they have been in '35 . . . theirs' will be a happy Senior year . . . Of course, it was hard to learn . . . that if the year was to ride smoothly . . . the wheels must be well lubricated . . . with the traditional . . . midnight oil . . . although the Freshmen did seem wide awake enough . . . the Turkey Day Drive was ample evidence of this . . . The officers . . . chosen after a year of deliberation . . . give promise to lead their class . . . right through the remaining three years . . . the three happiest carefree years . . . in anyone's life . . . It will be up to you Freshmen . . . to see that . . . at the end of your high school career . . . there will be no regrets . . . only a pleasant memory . . . and the joy that comes from a task well done.

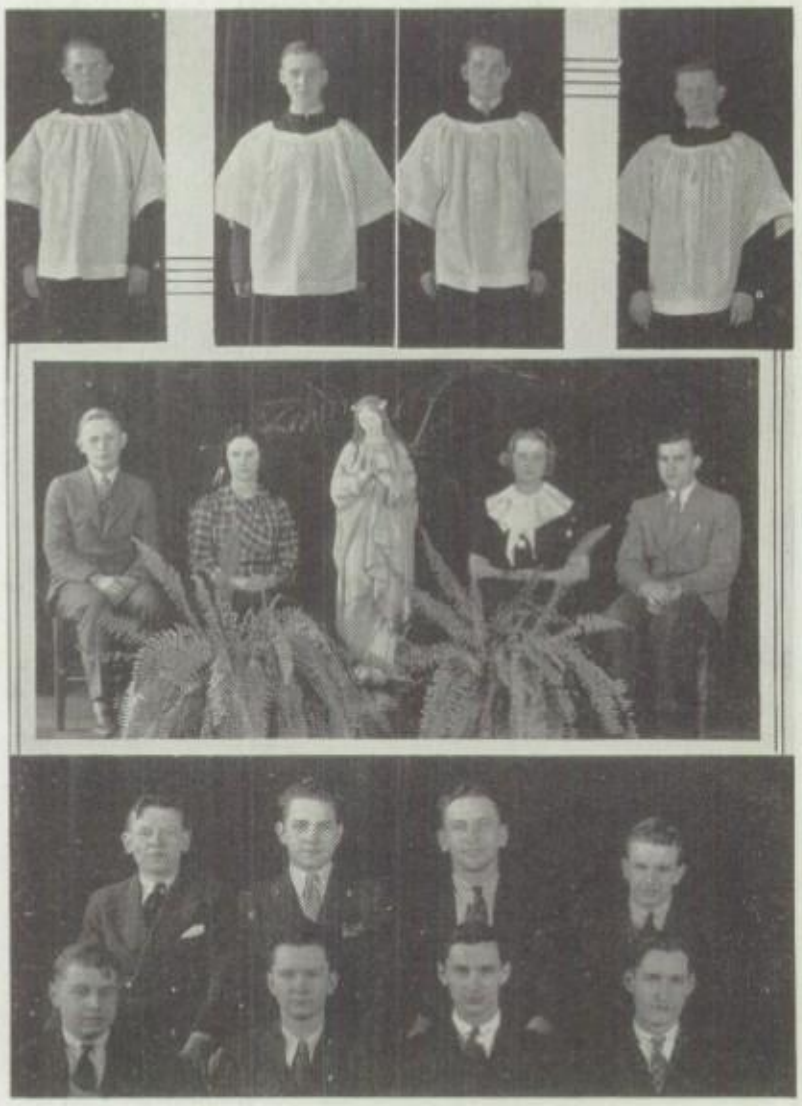
ORGANIZATIONS



Sodality

The most important society at Central is the Sodality of our Blessed Lady to which every student belongs. It was organized for the purpose of promoting the spiritual welfare of the student body.

The annual Sodality Mass was held in the Queen of the Holy Rosary Cathedral, December 8. This Mass was attended by Sodalists from all the Catholic High Schools and Colleges of the city.

The annual May Convocation was held on the school campus, Sunday, May 26, at which faculty and students united in prayer for the success of the Summer Festival.

With the Rev. Raymond F. Gorman, as Faculty Moderator, the Sodality was headed by John Eberly, prefect; Rita Shaughnessy, vice-prefect; Lillian Miller, secretary; and Gerald Boyer, sergeant-at-arms.

St. Vincent De Paul

The Christ the King Junior Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul is the only Junior Conference in the Diocese. This is the second year of its existence at Central.

The Conference has gathered and distributed over 10,000 magazines and newspapers to the various charitable institutions and collected and delivered clothing to needy families.

At Christmas, the Society solicited baskets. Sixty-two were taken to poor families by members of this group.

In May, these boys sponsored a breakfast at the quarterly meeting of the Particular Council of Toledo which was the biggest activity the Junior Council has undertaken.

Father Kirsch is spiritual adviser and Mr. Valentine Fischer is moderator. Officers are Leonard Lenga, president; Leon Picard, vice-president; Stephen Adamczewski, treasurer; Gerald Geoffrion, secretary; Douglas Keller, assistant treasurer.

St. Hilda's Guild

This society, which was organized six years ago, for the purpose of caring for the altar and the sacristy, has been an active one during the past year. It is the girls of this club who have cared for the candles and linens and have seen that the vestments were in good condition.

Nuntius Romanus

During the past few years the Vergilian Club has steadily been enlarging its field of activities, until it is one of the most outstanding groups of the school. It now numbers among its major undertakings the editing of the Nuntius Romanus, the awarding of monograms and the presenting of the Latin play.

This organization is a rather exclusive one, in as much as the membership is confined only to students of the fourth year Latin classes who can speak Latin. Its primary purpose is to increase the fluency of the members. This is done by discussing and conversing always solely in Latin during class session.

This year, the Vergilians presented the fourth annual Latin play. Reverend Raymond F. Gorman, Head of the Latin department has written and produced these plays. Besides the performance in Toledo, the plays are shown in various schools in the surrounding cities.

Library Club

The Library Club was organized two years ago under the name "Lit-O-Lites." Members of the club are the girls who assist Sister M. Anthony, librarian, in the work of circulation and in keeping the library in good order.

THE CENTRIPETAL

"The Centripetal has gone to press!" With a sigh of relief, twenty-four staff members, not to mention faculty advisers, lay down their pencils and pens. However, though the work is difficult it is pleasant and the "Harvest will be great." It has been the aim of the staff, this year as in other years, to produce the most attractive annual at the minimum cost. The editorial staff has tried to make the printed page as interesting as the pictures. Bernard Kaminski, as editor-in-chief assisted by Stephen Adamczewski, associate editor, heads the entire staff. The senior section was taken care of by Patricia Howard and Virginia Todd. The task of describing hard-fought games fell to the lot of William O'Loughlin and Francis Ringenbach, boys sports' editors, while Antoinette McVicker was in charge of the girls' sports. Other members of the editorial staff were Virginia Coyle and Mary Eileen Navarre, organizations editors, Lillian Miller, calendar editor, and Mary Ann Langenderfer, copy editor.

The art staff, consisted of Benjamin Morrin and Ursula Yost, art editors, Bernadine Haas, photography editor, Paul Allen, activities editor, and Virginia Holley and Francis Fischbach, underclass editors. The entire work of the photography and planning of the cuts and plates rested upon this staff, and work began in February when senior pictures were taken.

The business staff was under the management of John Eberly, and Andrew Szemetko, his assistant. Fern Nissen and Bernard Graham took care of the advertising of the yearbook. Jane Mullen, able circulation manager, was aided by Fasoh Geha, Marie Paszek and Daniel Katafiasz.

Jeanette Aubry, office manager, Madelyn Noel and Monica LeDuc, typists, complete the staff.

THE CENTRIC

Although The Centric is still in the "teens," it has achieved a status far beyond its years. This year, under the capable direction of Patricia Howard, editor-in-chief, the Centric has completed its fifteenth year as the combination news-source, editorial comment, comic sheet, and sports-final.

Acting in the capacity of associate editors, Mary Ann Langenderfer and Stephen Adamczewski, did their utmost to make The Centric more interesting to its many readers. Although Jane Mullen was not a managing person and Marjorie Bertling never copied homework, they were managing editor and copy editor respectively. Harry Overberg, as the exchange editor, contributed bits of news concerning other schools. Breathless moments of hard-fought games were vividly recounted by Bernard Kaminski and Francis Grubb, boys' sports editors. News of the activities of the girls' sports club was related by Corinne Myers.

The staff writers included Paul Gaynor, John Horrigan, Edward Keenan, Arthur Teall, Bernadine Haas, Anna Willinger, Bettie Kramer and Richard Bush. Dorothy Christie and Rita Metty were the feature editors. Esther Sulier, as alumni editor, kept the school informed about the doings of past Central students. Margaret Walentick related the latest news of the classes. Bernard Schramm wrote the humor column which bore the clever name "Schrammurmurs." Helen Drew and Lillian Rudnicki were the nimble-fingered typists.

The business staff was headed by Douglas Keller, assisted by Madelyn Brighton. James Weisenburger and Virginia Holley took care of the advertising. Fern Nissen and Mary Ellen Finn managed the circulation, with the cooperation of Dorothy Aubry, David McPartland, Alice Andresky, Eugene Extine and John Dowling. Monica LeDuc was typist on the business staff.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council looks back on a varied and successful year. The Council is a form of school government in which each Conference Room has a voice in the various problems and activities. It is like a magnet which draws students and teachers more closely together. Ways of making our school "bigger and better" are given weighty consideration and a spirit of harmony and cooperation has reigned throughout the organization.

Prime among its achievements were the establishment of a plan by which Central students might be checked in their conduct on public conveyances, the Community Chest Drive, the corridor patrols, and a successful high school day at Sears.

The principal purpose of this organization is to unify all student activities under one general control and to aid in developing in the student a spirit of responsibility.

Each member acts as a representative of his or her conference group and reports news of the meetings to their respective rooms. These representatives also encourage their classmates to contribute to the activities of the organization and arouse enthusiasm.

The Student Council officers are: president, John Eberly; vice-president, Margaret Dunn; secretary, Jack Yates, and treasurer, Virginia O'Rourke.

Conference room representatives include: Kathleen Keegan, John Dillon, Franklin Urban, Frances Dunigan, Margaret Dunn, Everett Wolfe, Gerald Boyer, John Hanley, Catherine Geiger, Norman Sulier, Roland Rowe, John Cooper, Lucille Burns, Elizabeth McPartland, Marvin Paule, Catherine Ann Whitwham, Rosemary Lauer, Helen Jeanne Navarre, Fred Kendrick, Fred Zissler, Helen Mae Dickman, Jack Yates, Margaret Liggett, Marion Waugh, Marcella LaVergne, William McCarthy, and Robert Fournier.

ORCHESTRA

Mr. Joseph Sainton

Central is indeed fortunate in having a fine Orchestra directed by Mr. Sainton, who is numbered among the leading musicians of the city.

At its concert, December 16, the Orchestra offered a varied and interesting program. Solo numbers were also presented by several of its members.

Much praise was accorded the Orchestra for selections rendered at the Senior class play, "Captain Applejack."

In May this organization accompanied the Glee Club in the musical comedy, "The Firefly." It also participated in the May Festival and appeared frequently in Assemblies.

Officers of the year were Elizabeth Schmitt, president; Bernard Kaminski, vice-president; John Horrigan, secretary; and Virginia Todd and Ernest Szemetko, librarians.

GLEE CLUB

During the past season our Glee Club directed by Mr. Joseph Sainton, fully illustrated its worth and accomplishments in the presentation of "The Firefly," given May 5 and 6 with orchestra accompaniment. The musical comedy was by no means the sole activity of this organization for it appeared in programs throughout the year.

In the Central auditorium on May 22 the Glee Club sang selections at the May Festival. As a fitting climax to the year it will also appear at the closing of the campaign for Central Catholic High School, June 13.

THE CENTRAL BAND

No other organization began its activities as early in the school year as the Band whose stirring music spurred football and basketball teams on to victory. On the field, these scarlet and gray clad musicians were led by that high-stepping prancer, John Horrigan.

But the Band did not play at games only. In its annual concert it showed its ability to render other kinds of music. It played at assemblies and appeared in the May Festival in the Central Auditorium. The Band has been indispensable, always adding a note of gaiety and color whenever they appeared.

The year's officers were Francis Grubb, president; Anna Marie Krupp, vice-president; Rosella Meyer, secretary; Bernice Callahan, Ruth Durliat and Eileen Ruth, librarians. Mr. Joseph Sainton was the very able director.

DRAMATIC CLUB

Miss Mary Ida Talty,

This organization, under the direction of Miss Ida Talty, has just completed one of the most successful years in its history.

On February 2 and 3, the senior class play, "Captain Applejack," was presented before two crowded houses. Without doubt this production proved both a financial as well as an artistic success.

The title role played by Benjamin Morrin was the highlight of the production. His mastery of the characters of Ambrose Applejohn and of Captain Applejack won the interest of the audience from beginning to end.

Virginia Todd displayed exceptional ability as the charming Poppy Faire.

The part of Anna Valeska, the Russian dancer was admirably displayed by Vivian Fehlen. Michael Rabbitt, as Ivan Borolsky, the Russian spy, was outstanding.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Pengard, two notorious crooks, as played by Jane Mullen and Andrew Szemetko deserve special mention, while Alois Trendel, as Lush, the butler, will long be remembered.

Others in the cast included John Horrigan, as the business man, Johnny Jason; Francis Grubb, as Dennett, a policeman; Mary Kathryn Monroe, Bernard Kaminski, Jean Klueter, Margaret Dunn, Eugene Extine, Gerald Boyer, Dwight Liggett, Gilbert Niehoff, Everett Wolfe, Merlyn Welter, William Dunn, and Donald Wawrzyniak.

In May, the Glee Club and Orchestra united their efforts to present the musical comedy, "The Firefly" which proved such a success that three presentations were necessary instead of the customary two. The music was directed by Mr. Joseph Sainton.

Mary Frances Dunn, as "Nina, The Firefly," shared the lead with Harry Holt, as Jack Travers, Geraldine's fiancee. Gerald Boyer, as Jenkins, the confidential secretary, kept the audience in perpetual laughter. John Thurston, "Uncle" to all the girls, was portrayed by Eugene Extine. The characters of Suzette, Geraldine's maid, and Pietro, Thurston's valet, were taken by Rita Shaughnessy and Michael Schmitt.

Betty Jane Noon, Margaret Dunn and Alois Trendel had the difficult roles of Mrs. Elaine VanDare, Geraldine, her niece, and Herr Franz, the choir master.

Others who helped in the success of the production were Margaret Bishop, in the part of Sybil, Mrs. VanDare's daughter; Mary Kathryn Monroe, as Tony Colombo, a pickpocket; Andrew Szemetko, as Correlli, Nina's guardian; Angela Farkas, a flower vender; and Ernest Sanislo, captain of the yacht.

In the dancing chorus were: Eileen Ruth, Frances Mellon, Virginia Holt, Josephine Sturniolo, Bette Leck, Jeanette Aubry, Bette Kramer, Bernice Callahan, Rozella Meyers, Cecelia Ghyselink, Beatrice Nowak, Virginia Polczynski, Gilbert Niehoff, Paul Gaynor, William Dunn, Albert Huss, Daniel Katafiasz, John Munger, John Rumpf, Andrew Szemetko, Richard Brazzil, Benjamin Morrin, Merlyn Welter, Edward Fackelman.

The singing chorus included: Virginia Coyle, Loretta Yeager, Mary Fabos, Fasoh Geha, Mary Ann Langenderfer, Rita Metty, Mary Agnes Amon, Vivian Fehlen, Dorothy Aubry, LaVera Sherack, Rozanne Bick, Angela Farkas, Martha Bykowski, Irene Schneider, Dorothy Christie, Anna Marie Krupp, Virginia Graham, Rita Weis, Barbara Schmidbauer, Catherine Noble, Lillian Rudnicki, Rita Couturier, Eugene Halbeisen, Paul Allen, Julius Szemetko, James Gembreska, Richard Brazzil, Everett Wolfe.

Much credit must be given to the members of the various staffs who assisted in making both productions outstanding successes.

"Sit down, you four-flushing dish of tea!"

"Is everything as it should be?"

"Someone is climbing in the pantry window."

"I am Madame Valeska, the Russian dancer."

"Why it's Johnny Jason."

"We have come to take the ship."

"Pray allow me."

"Love at first sight. I wonder if there is such a thing.

"Come Applejohn, give in. Fate has decided against you."

The Powers behind the scenes.

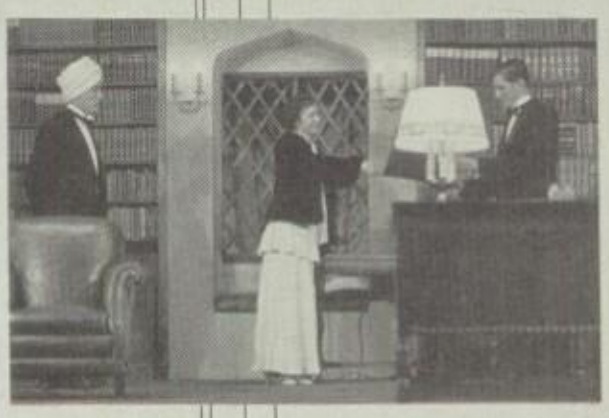
A Poppy relaxes.

"Is your liver bothering you again?"

"—When anyone betrays me I hunt them down and make them suffer."

"You are still alive?"

"It is delightful. It has such an old-world flavor."



"I offer my apologies for calling at so late an hour."

"How now, my Pretties?"

"The ancient home of the Applejohn's for sale!"

SPORTS

Alvin J. Sacksteder

Alvin J. Sacksteder, athletic director and coach, has come to be an integral part of Central and he would be sorely missed both amongst the faculty and the student body if he were to leave Central. He has during his stay here established a reputation for being honest and just, in his dealings with all the athletes and above all he has insisted upon fair play at all times regardless of the opponents' actions.

Al, as he is known and called by most of the students, has an enviable record for a coach, handicapped though he is. For the past six years, Central, with the smallest student body and coaching staff in the city, has successfully competed with the other city teams, and fans have come to expect a good game wherever Central plays. This is due in a large part to the ability and leadership of Sacksteder in obtaining the cooperation and good will of the athletes.

As long as Al remains with Central we are sure that the future students will enjoy the teams that represent Central in sports as well as we have enjoyed them. He is a real help to all boys and has a personality that demands respect and creates a friendship with all who come in contact with him.

His is truly a big task which no one realizes better than those who have worked for him. May he remain at Central for years to come.

John Donnolly

John Connolly, a graduate of Notre Dame in 1932 came to Central two years ago to teach Public Speaking and assist Sacksteder in coaching football. From the very beginning his coaching ability has been noticed in the caliber of lightweight material sent up to the Varsity, many of whom have won positions in their first year.

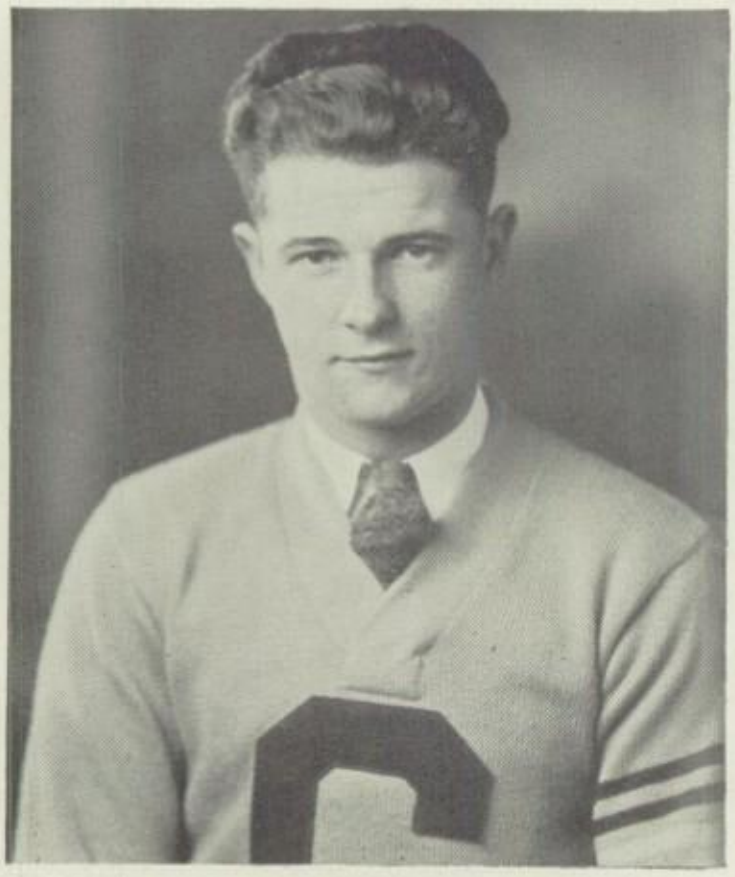
John brought with him from Notre Dame the same fighting spirit that is typical of his Alma Mater and instilled it in his charges. His personality has made itself felt everywhere and we hope that Central will have another opportunity of having Mr. Connolly for a faculty member and assistant coach of football next year.

Dr. Joseph A. Muenzer

Dr. Joseph A. Muenzer has completed his eleventh year as team physician and companion to the athletic teams of the school. Furthermore, he is completing his eleventh year as friend of the school, not nominally, but actively.

Far too lengthy, for the available space, would be even a summarization of "Doc's" value and activity in behalf of athletics, and other activities at Central. The thanks and admiration of the entire school are deservedly his. May he continue his good work in behalf of Central for many a year.

FOOTBALL 1934



"Bill" O'Loughlin

Captain O'Loughlin

A coach's dream—that's Bill . . . agile . . . intelligent . . . tall and handsome . . . Yes, Bill wow's em . . . 'but he has the admiration . . . and respect . . . of all his pals . . . and all Bill's friends are his pals . . . When he plays football . . . he gets better . . . when the going is the toughest . . . Off the field . . . he's a real gentleman . . . Bill has a grin that no one forgets . . . that's just a few of the good reasons . . . why the boys all voted for our "Willie" . . . and so gave him the Captaincy . . . of the 1934 team . . . His ability to hold the end position . . . gained him all city honors . . . Next year . . . and the years to come . . . we'll see Bill . . . still holding up his "end" . . . Stick to it, kid . . . You've got it coming.

With the lightest team in the city, Central finished the past season in second place. This is the best proof of our coach's ability and the perfect teamwork of the players. Out of a nine-game schedule Central ended the season with seven wins and two losses.

The "Fighting Irish" opened the season with Delta. Their superior play showed to advantage and never once was there any doubt about the outcome of the game. Bondy led the scorers with three touchdowns while Reed, Hentges, Rabbitt, Gohlike, and Buehrer each collected one. All three varsity teams saw action with the first string on the bench most of the time. Score—Central 57, Delta 6.

Central still untried traveled to Libbey to battle the Cowboys. The game was hard fought and exciting throughout, with Central superior in passing while Libbey captured the punting honors. Central in the first half failed to score, although within the shadow of the Libbey goal line.

The second half opened and a few plays later Perz on an off-tackle play dodged his way through Libbey tacklers and ran 45 yards for the first touchdown. Czarnecki's try for point was wide. Libbey received the kickoff and started a drive which ended on the Central 12-yard line. A bad pass from center to Perz rolled behind the goal line where Perz fell upon it resulting in a safety, which made the score 6–2 in favor of Central. An intercepted pass in the fourth quarter started a drive which ended in another touchdown. The second string replaced the varsity and the game ended with the ball in their possession on Libbey's 45-yard line. Score—Central 12, Libbey 2.

After downing Columbus East, Central turned to meet Cleveland Cathedral Latin. The Latineers came to Central with a large, rugged and fast team that had a reputation for being tough. Central scored first with the Bondy to Perz pass combination from the 12-yard line. After a sustained drive from Central's own 45-yard line, Corbett, Ringenbach and Bill Reed upheld the defense for Central while Sanislo, Czarnecki, Bondy and O'Loughlin with their aggressiveness kept Cleveland on their heels.

Lady luck favored Central in the second half when after Palumbo scored once on an end run had three other potential touchdowns called back because of penalties. In the fourth quarter Bondy and Perz aided by perfect blocking and deception, completed one of their passes for the final touchdown of the game. Central really earned this victory and the boys deserved the praises that they received. Czarnecki did well. The final score—Central 12, Latin 6.

Confident that we could take Waite this year because of our success so far we encountered them in what decided the City Championship. In the first half Central predominated the play and it looked as if the Waiters were due for the first city defeat of the season. The second half saw the breaks favor Waite which ultimately led to the scores. The 15,000 fans who saw the game enjoyed the contest which ended 13–0 in favor of Waite. The entire team performed well and lived up to their reputation.

Still stinging from the defeat of the week before the boys entertained Tiffin Junior Order.

A pass from Bondy to Perz from the twelve-yard line resulted in the first touchdown. Czarnecki converted from placement for the extra point. Tiffin seeking revenge took the ball to Central's 15-yard line where they were stopped when O'Loughlin intercepted a lateral pass and raced eighty-five yards to score. In the second half Tiffin showed their true worth and scored before Central could recover from their surprise. Central tightened its defense and held the Tiffin boys scoreless for the rest of the game. Sanislo, Wawrzyniak, Corbett and O'Loughlin were outstanding on defense for Central while the backfield performed as usual.

Central traveled to DeVilbiss the next Saturday and defeated the Tigers 13–6, in Page's Stadium. At the half the score stood 6–0 in favor of DeVilbiss and the Central rooters were visualizing the second city defeat. A new Central eleven ran out on the field in the second half and proceeded to outplay the Tigers in every department of the game. They ran, kicked, passed and blocked nicely and before the third period was well under way the score stood Central 7, DeVilbiss 6. Central intercepted numerous Tiger passes and fumbles and graduallyworked toward the Orange and Black goal line for another score in the fourth period. Central continued to use the air lanes with a good deal of success gaining most of their yards by passing. Final score—Central 13, DeVilbiss 6.

In their stride once more the Irish traveled to Scott stadium convinced that this year the traditions jinx would be broken. The first quarter saw the Central warriors march 88 yards by running plays to score, after an exchange of punts. Scott started to click on their running plays and the forward wall of Central had a difficult time stopping Brown, Nopper and Schuette. The half ended with Central leading 7–6. It seemed as though the team needed the intermission talk of Sacksteder before they showed their real worth. Both teams were improved, but Scott's powerful running attack wore the players out and by the end of the third quarter Scott added another touchdown to make the score 12–7 in favor of Scott. With four minutes left to play Central took time out to pray and talk up a good fighting spirit. The boys started from their own twenty-yard line with a forward lateral pass from Czarnecki to O'Loughlin to Bondy for a gain of 23 yards and a first down. Passes from Bondy and Perz to the ends and the backfield netted four more first downs. Within the shadow of Scott's goal line and going strong Bondy faded back on the famous 67 play and threw a long pass to Perz on the sidelines who ran across the line standing up. With Central determined to hold this one-point lead and Scott equally determined to score once more the fans saw the ball change hands frequently as a result of interceptions and recovered fumbles. Scott attempting to score via the air route gave Central a decided break. Brown of Scott being rushed by the entire forward wall of Central was forced to throw the ball right into the arms of Perz who galloped towards the goal line behind fine interference. Central rejoiced because the jinx was broken forever. Score—Central 20, Scott 12.

With the last game of the season to play and a chance to tie for the City Championship, Central journeyed to Woodward field minus the services of their star halfback, Larry Bondy, who was injured in the Scott game. Bob Buehrer, substitute for Bondy, did fine work, as did Bill Reed, the team's quarterback and most dependable man.

Woodward intercepted a Central pass on the Central 17-yard line in the fourth quarter and a few plays later Hiltman of Woodward threw a pass to Davis who ran over the goal line. Hiltman drop-kicked the extra point. Central started its last minute rally and advanced the ball from deep in its own territory to the Woodward 19-yard line.

The next play a Woodward player intercepted Bondy's pass and raced for the goal line behind interference. Perz finally caught him on the 21-yard line. The game ended with the ball in Woodward's possession. Final score—Woodward 7, Central 0.

Bill O'Loughlin regular left end on the Central football team was elected honorary captain for the past season at the annual banquet held in the school cafeteria. Larry Bondy was awarded the Gus Muenzer trophy for being the most valuable player.

The seniors who have played their last game in a Central uniform are: O'Loughlin, Sanislo, Wawrziniak, Ringenbach, Mackley, Mahoney, Reed, Collins, and Corbett.

Cheerleaders

The liveliest and most original cheerleaders that Central has ever had led the cheering section this year at all the football and basketball games. These boys not only kept the team in high spirits with their cheers but also entertained the spectators between halves with their crazy antics. Many were the comments from outsiders relative to our cheerleaders and the way they led the cheers. And here they are—Bernie Schramm, William Mack and Martin Strassner.

Managers

Here we have the unheralded heroes of Central's athletic teams, the managers. These fellows take care of the needs of the team and help to keep the athletes physically fit. They spend many long hours working with the teams and are that perfect example of "cooperation" for which every coach strives. The managers are never noticed by anyone, not even the players, but if they should suddenly disappear, the first to notice their absence would be the team and coaching staff.

BASKETBALL 1934-35

With only two veterans returning from last year's championship squad, Central was not considered to have much of an opportunity in the city title race. Coach Sacksteder however took the material at hand and built a fast and capable quintet, which, though not winning the city title, finished second in the race, winning 15 games compared to only four lost in the regular season. They took the Catholic title the second straight year defeating St. John's. In the tournament Central won the first game from St. John's, and lost the second to DeVilbiss, city champions.

Central opened the basketball season with a thrilling 22–21 victory over a fine Point Place quintet.

In the second game Central traveled to Sylvania to hand the local boys a 46–11 trouncing, with Corbett and Drzazdzynski bagging 19–16 points respectively.

The Scarlet and Gray next traveled to Maumee and after a terrific struggle, they emerged victorious, winning 28–27. Too close for comfort.

The following night Central journeyed to Fremont to avenge a 33–29 setback of last year. With Corbett and Drzazdrzynski leading the Central scorers, they defeated a fast and celver team 41–34.

The Alumni were the next victims of the Irish, losing 37–17 after a stiff tussle.

Central successfully turned down its first intra-city opponent, when it defeated Woodward 24–15. After the first few minutes Central was never headed, and showed that it was to be reckoned with in the race for the city championship.

With a display of skill, strength and precision of teamwork Central defeated a highly praised Scott quintet 38–14 for their second intra-city win.

Tri State with a fast and heavy team gave Central a stiff battle before being subdued 31–27.

Central met its first defeat of the season when DeVilbiss, with Martin bagging 17 points, went on a scoring spree and won 34–17.

With Corbett sinking two long shots in the last few minutes of play, Central won a thriller from Waite 28–27 after Waite had led the first three quarters.

For the second time in four days, Central had to come from behind to win. At the beginning of the fourth quarter Libbey was ahead 36–24, but Central scored 13 points while holding Libbey scoreless to win 37–36.

With Holtgrieve added to the lineup Central decisively defeated Woodward for the second time 26–20 to jump into the lead in the city title race.

The Irish next traveled to Scott and after a nip and tuck first half battle Central won out in the second half, 31–26 to establish a tighter grip on the city championship.

After leading for three quarters, Central was unable to stop Waite's rush in the last quarter and lost by a 24–18 margin. This was a heart-breaker and decreased Central's chances for the championship.

Ottoville with a veteran team averaging 6′ 3″, invaded Central gym, and defeated the Scarlet and Gray in a thrilling game 29–26.

An immense crowd of 3000 packed the University of Toledo Field House to watch Central and DeVilbiss battle for occupancy of first place. DeVilbiss started well in the first half leading 22–5, and although Central played better ball, they could not overcome the DeVilbiss margin, and finally lost 33–20. This defeat put us out of the race for the city title.

After losing three straight games Central came back and soundly trounced Libbey the second time 41–26. Everyone of Sacksteder's boys (except Hinton who was out with a sore ankle) saw service.

Gaining confidence from the Libbey victory Central met St. John's and never was headed in winning a rather slow game 29–15 to capture the Catholic title for the second consecutive year.

Meeting a small but classy quintet from Cathedral Latin of Cleveland, Central had to do some fancy stepping to win their last game 40–36.

In the city tournament Central defeated St. John's while losing to DeVilbiss 30–23.

Although Central did not win the city championship, the team led by its excellent captain, Jack Corbett, should be congratulated on their fine spirit and teamwork win or lose, which carried them to a successful season.

Girls' Sports

The Girls' Athletic League has a three-fold purpose; first, to create an interest in sports among the girls; second, to develop good sportsmanship and third, to give continued interest in sports. To achieve these ends this League was organized five years ago.

The G.A.L. holds at least two Playdays a year. This year the first was held November 17, the second, April 13.

Participants in all sports are awarded points and the girls who have the highest number of points, at the end of the school year, are awarded Monograms.

Gladly the girls go from their classes,
Into the lockers come these fair lasses,
Right into the shower room they dress with such vim,
Like streaks they hurry then up to the gym,
So each one may get there exactly on time.

As Miss Talty soon says, "Now get into line,"
Toward their numbers all do flee.
Hearts as happy as can be.
Last of all the whistle blows,
Each one to her squad place goes.
Then on to play or section "seven"
It's here elections are held, do's and don'ts given,
Coming from there, they start to play.

Leaving all studies and cares far away,
Each squad, four in all, take part in the game.
After playing awhile the bell soon rings,
Grudgingly each girl goes for her things.
Untiring under such hard play,
Ends another perfect gym day.

The Alumni Association

Emmet J. Cullen
President

Mary C. Parr
Corresponding Secretary

Donald Blanchard
Treasurer

After two very successful Moonlights, during the summer, the Alumni Association opened its fall season of activity with a party of welcome to the Class of 1934. This affair was held at the High School the evening of September 20. Those attending were favored with interesting talks by the very Rev. Msgr. Francis J. Macelwane and the Rev. Raymond G. Kirsch. The evening was rounded out with dancing, refreshments, and entertainment.

November 7, marked the first attempt of the Alumni in sponsoring a Roller Skating Party. This was held at Crystal Gardens and proved very successful from both a financial and social standpoint.

On December 10, the final business meeting of the year was held, featuring the election of officers for 1935. The following were authorized to supervise the destiny of the Association for the coming year: Emmet J. Cullen, re-elected president; Ed Moeller, vice-president; Mary C. Parr, re-elected recording secretary; Marie Kutcher, corresponding secretary; Donald Blanchard, re-elected treasurer, and Stephen Szemetko, sergeant-at-arms.

The Fourth Annual Homecoming at the High School, the evening of December 27, concluded the social activities for 1934. This affair was outstanding in that former friendships were renewed, and that it presented for entertainment two unusually accomplished Alumni vocalists, namely, Agnes Sweeney, '31, and Joseph O'Leary, '31, with Rollin Morse as Master of Ceremonies. As usual, dancing and refreshments were also provided.

Friday evening, March 1, 1935, climaxed months of anticipation, industrious activity, and elaborate preparations, as the Fourth Annual Benefit Ball was held that evening at the New Secor Hotel. Music was featured by James Huber and his Royal Venetians, and the affair was attended by approximately 500 persons. Paul J. Fuller, and Marie Kutcher, very efficiently acted as co-chairmen for the event, and were assisted by a very aggressive committee.

As the Alumni Association's monthly publication the Centragrad, completed its first year of existence with the edition of April, Robert Gumb was vested with editorship for the coming year, at the business meeting of April 12.

We wish to take this opportunity to most graciously thank the adviser and the staff of the Centripetal, for the space granted us in this yearbook.

It is our belief that past demonstrations of ability, aggressiveness, and determination of the class of '35, point to this year's edition being very outstanding.

Also, it is our hope that we will have the privilege of listing you graduates of '35 as active members of our organization, and that your talents and spirit may reflect itself to the advantage of the Alumni Association.

Sincerely,
Central Catholic Alumni Association.

Old Shoes Made to Look Like New

We can rebuild the soles of women's or men's shoes like new with our newly installed Lamac Process machine, and at our regular prices, too. No nails, no stitches, no bulges—a clean, neat job. Give it a trial—you'll be delighted with the result.
